

JULY 2020

Dining will look a lot different at Gannon

Socially distanced seating in Beyer Cafeteria, more to-go options, and temperature checks – these are some of the changes that await students, faculty and staff returning to Gannon’s dining services. There are also significant changes to traffic patterns and food selections.

All of this, of course, has been to accommodate safety guidelines and modified service approaches in light of COVID-19. The priority is to provide a safe dining experience for our students, faculty and staff once they return to campus.

Here are some key changes so you can know what to expect:

- We’ve significantly reduced seating in all common areas throughout the Waldron Campus Center to be compliant with social-distancing protocols. There are about 200 fewer seats in Beyer Cafeteria. As a result, we’ll be offering the 219 suite and the second-floor game room as overflow seating for students with to-go meals.
- There will be a meal plan buffet option in the Yehl Ballroom during lunch and dinner hours.
- There is a significant increase in grab-and-go food options that will allow as many students as possible to be served while maintaining reduced occupancy in dining areas, per state guidelines.
- Pre-wrapped silverware and napkins will be handed out at our dining locations. Condiments will be handed out at all locations by a staff member.
- Self-serve food options have been minimized in accordance with safety guidance. Staff members will be available to serve.
- Signage and floor markings have been added to indicate the new flow of traffic in certain areas, the maximum occupancy of a room or area, and where you should stand while waiting in line.
- A new grab-and-go location has been created in the Waldron Campus Center.
- Locations will not be open to the public, only students, faculty and staff.

Seating in dining areas

- All tables are marked with proper capacity and include the appropriate number of chairs to meet social distancing guidelines.
- Some seating areas have been marked as “not permitted for use” to ensure social distancing guidelines are met.
- All tables and chairs are to remain where they are placed and should not be moved to another area or to another table.

Safety steps we’re taking

- All visitors will have to pass through a temperature scan to enter Beyer Cafeteria. Anyone with a fever of 100.4 or higher will not be allowed to enter.
- Face masks must be worn in the dining facilities except for when you are sitting and eating or drinking. You cannot move about the sitting areas without a mask on.
- Sanitizer stations are located in each dining area to ensure cleanliness before eating.
- A designated Metz staff member will be performing cleaning services during all meals to ensure proper sanitation and disinfecting of our dining areas.
- Metz employees also will be wearing masks and undergoing temperature scans on arrival to campus.
